Parking Permits for Albert Park Reserve

As members of the South Melbourne Junior Sports Club you are eligible for a parking permit from Parks Victoria. A permit costs $10 and allows up to two cars from the family to park within the park for junior sporting events including training and club functions.

Permits are available from the Parks Victoria office on Albert Road ( near MSAC).

- those that have had parking permits before and wish to renew go to the Parks Vic office with details of your past permit and proof of SMDSC membership to renew on the spot.
- those new to the club will need to fill out an application form available from the Parks Vic office and also show proof of membership. ie membership payment receipt

Please note parking officers were seen patrolling the carpark at Clarke Shield Pavillion last Saturday morning!!

Junior Cricket Matches Start This Weekend

The Club's Junior cricket season starts this weekend. Players will have received details of their respective teams and match times and locations for this weekend via email from team managers please make sure you arrive on time and remember all players must wear SMDSC club shirt and red cap. Make sure players are well supplied with water bottles and sunscreen. Good luck to all our teams!
