Have a look at the Weekly Scoreboard on our website www.smdsc.com.au to see how our teams performed over the weekend.

Also check whether your name is up in lights this week. If not, there is always next week!!

Major Fundraiser Launched For Junior Cricket Club

South Melbourne Junior Cricket Club provides paid professional coaching to all our junior players every week at training sessions. Payments to various coaches are largely funded through player subscriptions with the shortfall raised via fundraising and social events over theseason.

We have been very fortunate to secure a limited quantity of the magnificent Mt Avoca 2007 estate shiraz and 2007 estate cabernet via parent Gregor Christie and his contact Mathew Barry, Managing Director of the Mt Avoca Estate to on sell to member families as a fundraiser.

The vineyard is providing the wine to us at $198 per case (currently retails at $261) and will donate $48 per case per case directly back to the club to assist with our coaching. Please see attached a list of recent awards and medals Mt Avoca has received, specific vintage information is also available via the Mt Avoca website www.mountavoca.com.au

Our aim is to raise $5000 for the club wich equates to 105 cases of wine. This offer is available for 3 weeks only so please complete the registration form attached and fax to Allen Hart on (03) 8677 1733 by 27.11.2009. Please contact Allen on 0411 117 149 if you have any questions.

This is excellent wine and would be ideal to have in the cellar for Christmas!! Click here to download order form.

Wide Brimmed Cricket Hats

The South Melbourne District Junior Sports Club supports sun smart behaviour. Please note that if players choose to it is acceptable to wear a wide brimmed cricket hat rather than the red club cap.

Wide brimmed fielding hats are available at a reasonable cost from Greg Chappel Cricket Centre in West Melbourne, Rebel Sports Stores or wherever cricket gear is sold.
